with exception of:

Department: Center for Teaching and Learning TABLED

Name of Certificate: Community-Based Learning and Research

Credit Hours: 15 hours

Type of Change: Addition

Rationale: Students will become active, transformative learners and researchers in their communities as part of their required coursework. It will also increase the number of students in classes currently being offered in the Graduate College as well as increase the number of courses designated as Community-Based Learning throughout all graduate programs.

Effective Date: Fall 2018

Tabled because all courses must be housed in a degree-granting college. Nat DeBruin will contact the requesters.

CURRICULUM COMMITTEE

APPROVED

With the exception of the following: Special Topics in Statistics
STA 691,692,693, 581,582,583

Not approved because Dean Pittenger advised multiple special topics courses could be a loophole to avoid only teaching a course as a special topic twice. After that, courses must go through the official course addition request procedure through Graduate Council.

Independent Study in Mathematics
STA 586, 587, 588

Not approved because multiple independent study numbers are not needed, as students could enroll in different sections of the same course if needed.

CREDENTIALING COMMITTEE

Dr. Lanham reported all colleges had been reviewed and are up to date. Dr. Lanham will make the Graduate Award for Outstanding Graduate Advisor at the Spring Awards Ceremony.

PROGRAM REVIEW COMMITTEE

Dr. Allen reported all reports were completed. Dr. Brammer reported that the Board of Governors recommended continuation of all programs reviewed.

OTHER BUSINESS:

Chair Christofero reported that an email was sent to all graduate students soliciting nominations for the 2019-19 student representative on Graduate Council. Dr. Christofero also advised that she and Dr. Brammer were rolling off Graduate Council after 8 years serving and that new officers will be elected by the new Council members at the April meeting.

CITE

Department: Weisberg Division of Computer Science

Intent to Plan; New Major or Degree: Masters of Science in Cybersecurity

Credit Hours: 30 Credit Hours

Type of Change: Addition

Rationale: After the security breach associated with more than one billion Yahoo user accounts in 2013, another 500 million Yahoo user accounts were stolen in 2016. Then, Yahoo, the giant web services provider, was hacked again in 2017. We have seen a huge increase in cyber-related incidents, including big data breaches, physical infrastructure tampering, ransomware, among others. As cybersecurity continues to be a primary challenge, the market and need of cybersecurity professionals are growing at an astonishing rate. Forbes reported that the burgeoning cybersecurity market is expected to grow from $75 billion in 2015 to $170 billion by 2020. A report from Cisco puts the global figure at one million cybersecurity job openings. According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, there are currently more than 200,000 unfilled cybersecurity positions in US alone and the rate of growth for jobs is projected at 37 percent from 2012-2022, much faster than the average (7 percent) for all other occupations. At this rate, the United States is on pace to hit a half-million or more unfilled cybersecurity positions by 2021. It is clear that there is a strong need and job market for cybersecurity professions, locally, nationally and internationally and the proposed M.S. in Cybersecurity degree program is very timely. The M.S. in Cybersecurity degree program will adequately produce graduates who will fill the workforce needs in this rapidly-growing field. The proposed program is a viable low-cost program that will significantly result in increasing the enrollment and producing more tuition and program/lab fees. Along with the B.S. in Computer and Information Security program proposed recently by the Weisberg Division of Computer Science, the proposed program will educate students to better understand, prevent, mitigate and respond to cybersecurity threats. The M.S. in Cybersecurity program will also strengthen existing programs at Marshall University. Closely-related programs will greatly benefit from the addition of the M.S. in Cybersecurity degree program as this new program will create exciting and productive new paths for education and research for students in existing Marshall University undergraduate and graduate degree and certificate programs in Computer Science, Information System, Technology Management, Digital Forensics and Information Assurance, Electrical and Computer Engineering, Management Information Systems, and Criminal Justice.

COEPD*Department: Elementary and Secondary Education

Type of Change Request: Non-curricular

Degree Program: MA in Education

Effective Date: Fall 2018

Rationale: Over the years, the Elementary and Secondary Education Program and its faculty have become increasingly involved in the EdD in Curriculum and Instruction, and in the creation and delivery of teacher Professional Development opportunities. Although the name, "Elementary and Secondary Education" still describes some of what we do, it no longer describes all of what we do. For this reason, program faculty would like to change the name of the program to "Curriculum and Instruction," which better reflects the totality of our work and offerings.

Department: School Psychology

Type of Change Request: Change in Degree Requirements; SPSY740-School Psychology

Practicum III - no longer required. Total required credit hours change from 42 hours to 39 hours.

Degree Program: Ed.S.

Effective Date: Fall 2018

Rationale: Our students in School Psychology currently have three practicums in addition to a 1200 hour internship. With improvements to our Practicum I and Practicum II coursework, the Practicum III course is not needed. Also the closure of the Summer Enrichment Program has affected the program's ability to have Practicum III in its current form. In the summer the students will instead focus on the completion of their program evaluation or thesis.

Department: School Psychology

Type of Change Request: Non-Curricular Change; Change in Catalog

Degree Program: Ed.S.

Effective Date: Summer 2018

Rationale: Clarify 2-C [grade of C in course-work] rule for EdS in School Psychology

Department: Doctoral Programs in Education

Type of Change Request: Change - Eliminate EDF 719

Degree Program: EdD in Curriculum and Instruction

Effective Date: Fall 2018

Rationale: In Fall 2015, the Leadership Studies and Curriculum and Instruction EdD programs revised curricula to reflect contemporary disciplinary trends and student needs; to address declining enrollment; and to situate Marshall University in a more competitive position in the market for terminal degree offerings. Faculty in the C&I EdD program now propose eliminating EDF 719: Introduction to Doctoral Studies, a one credit course students previously took during their first fall semester: first, because faculty have created a Blackboard Organization to house all content previously provided in EDF 719 (which will remain available to students throughout their doctoral careers); and second, in light of tuition trends, eliminating the one credit course will improve affordability.

COHP

Department: Public Health

Type of Change Request: Delete the GRE or Equivalent exam as a requirement for admission into the program .

Degree Program: Masters in Public Health

Effective Date : Summer 2018

Rationale: We have determined that applicant's GRE score or equivalent Exam (MCAT,PCAT) does not determine the applicant's success in completing the MPH program.

COS

Department: Biological Sciences

Type of Change Request: Non-curricular Catalog Change

Degree Program: MS and MA in Biological Sciences

Effective Date: Fall 2018

Synopsis of changes: Editorial changes in the Program Description that improve the description.

Revised description of the GRE score requirements for applicant admission requirements. New wording for method to apply for Graduate Teaching and Research assistantships.

Department: Biological Sciences

Area of Emphasis Title: Watershed Resource Science

Credit Hours: M.S., 36 hours; M.A., 32 hours (no change in credit hours)

Type of Change Request: Deletion of an Area of Emphasis

Effective Date: Fall 2018

Rationale: Instead of using Areas of Emphasis, the Department prefers to have the student, advisor, and committee work together to develop a personalized Plan of Study tailored to each student's thesis and career goals.

Department: Biological Sciences

Area of Emphasis Title: Organismal, Evolutionary, and Ecological Biology

Credit Hours: M.S., 36 hours; M.A., 32 hours (no change in credit hours)

Type of Change Request: Deletion of an Area of Emphasis

Effective Date: Fall 2018

Rationale: The Area of Emphasis is redundant. It is so broad that it is essentially the same as the Biological Sciences major. The Area of Emphasis is not distinct from the major itself.

Department: Biological Sciences

Major or Degree: Biological Sciences, M.S. and M.A.

Type of Change: Change

Effective Date: Fall 2018

Rationale:

1. We are reducing our graduate seminar requirements (but maintaining same number of total hours required for graduation) from 6 to 3 credits so that students may fulfill their

600-level graduate course requirement with a greater diversity of coursework.

Specifically, we are making the following seminar requirement changes:

- 1 a. Removing requirement to take BSC 661.
- 1 b. Removing requirement to take BSC 662 twice (but maintaining the requirement to take BSC 662 one time).
2. To avoid confusion, we would like to rename the current Seminar I (661) to Topics in Biological Sciences so that our required seminars (660 and 662 may be named Seminar I and Seminar 11). The course catalog description will remain as is.

SOM

Department: Biomedical Research

Type of Change Request: Non-curricular catalog change

Degree Program: M.S. and Ph.D.

Effective date: Summer 2018

Rationale: There are several changes to the catalog that have been approved previously by Graduate Council over the last few months. The name of the program was changed from Biomedical Sciences (BMS) to Biomedical Research (BMR). Areas of Emphasis were added. Application deadlines were changed. Course alpha designators were changed. This form combines all of these changes into one document and corrects errors in the previous catalog description.

Graduate College

Type of Change Request: Non-curricular changes to policies section of the Graduate Catalog

Effective Date: Fall 2018

Rationale: The appeals process for final grades and for disciplinary action need to be revised to offer a more clear and concise set of instructions for students and faculty to follow. Also, the changes to the process represent the common practices of the dean and members of the Graduate Council.

Although the Graduate College does not have policies for other forms of appeal, the University does. As such, it is prudent and useful to outline these potential remedies in the Graduate Catalog.

Other Business before the Committee:

The request for a Graduate Certificate in Community-Based Learning and Research submitted through the Center for Teaching and Learning was tabled at the March, 2018 meeting of the Graduate Council. The request was returned to Dr. Damien Arthur with a request that he review the plans with Dr. Eric Lassiter in the Graduate Humanities Program and that the CBLR certificate be anchored in the traditional academic structure of a college or academic department.

/ Title (New): ENT 680 / Entrepreneurship

Rationale: The Management, Marketing and MIS Division, which housed the Entrepreneurship program, has been partitioned into two divisions - 1 Management and 2 - Marketing and MIS and Entrepreneurship. In the negotiations that took place to determine how the Division would be divided, it was agreed that the Entrepreneurship major would become part of the Marketing/MIS area, that the Entrepreneurship faculty would move to the MKT/MIS area and that MGT 680 (Entrepreneurship) would move to a ENT designation. The details of the split were approved by then Dean Chen and forwarded to the Provost, who subsequently approved. The split became official Summer 2017.

Principles and Best Practices for Appeals of Academic Dishonesty, Dismissal from a Program, or Both

PREAMBLE

Students who enroll in Marshall University (Marshall) courses and degree programs assume the obligation for conduct that is compatible with Marshall's mission as an educational institution. Marshall requires all its student to be aware of, and abide by the behavior standards of the University and the academic program in which they are enrolled. Ignorance of acceptable boundaries of student behavior, as contained in the Academic Dishonesty policy and individual program policy is not a basis for excusing inappropriate behavior.

The Graduate College's policies regarding the appeal of a finding of student academic dishonesty, dismissal from a graduate program, or both, exist to provide the affected student ample due process to appeal and present evidence that punitive actions are unwarranted and thereby must be withdrawn.

Marshall's appeals process is not analogous to, is not equivalent to, and does not conform to criminal law processes. The hearing is designed to determine responsibility, or lack thereof, for academic dishonesty violations only and determine the appropriateness of dismissal from an academic program. The academic appeal process shall be informal in nature so as to provide substantial justice, and it shall not be bound by legal jargon, court-like proceedings, or legal definitions.

The appeal process includes many steps beginning with an informal meeting between the student and appropriate faculty or representatives of the department. Those matters that cannot be resolved at the informal level may be appealed to the Dean of the Graduate College. As necessary, the student may continue the appeal by requesting a hearing of members of the Graduate Council. The final arbiter in the process the Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost.

During the appeal process, the student may seek the support of an advocate or legal counsel. The University provides a student advocate at no charge. A student seeking legal counsel may do so at his or her expense.

The advocate or counsel may advise the student during the appeal process. The advocate or counsel may also join the student but may not participate in any scheduled hearing.

Those reviewing the appeal shall assume that the student is not responsible for the conditions that lead to his or her dismissal, is not responsible for alleged academic dishonesty, or both.

Falsification, distortion, misrepresentation of information, or furnishing false information to any Marshall official, faculty member or office, including the Graduate Council, is a violation of the Student Code of Conduct.

At each level of review, the primary matters to be addressed include:

- 1) What is evidence that lead to the finding of an act of academic dishonesty, dismissal from an academic program, or both?
- 2) Was the interpretation of the evidence in keeping with a common understanding of published definitions of academic dishonesty, criteria for dismissal, or both?
- 3) Was there evidence of capricious or prejudicial application of these definitions for the student?
- 4) Can those reviewing the appeal come to a reasonable conclusion that the student did engage in academic dishonesty, met the criteria for dismissal, or both?

Those reviewing the student's appeal must either support or reject the appeal. Support of the appeal indicates that the student's dismissal from an academic program was not appropriate and that the student will be allowed to resume his or her completion of the degree, that the student did not engage in academic dishonesty and that all sanctions will be removed, or both. Rejection of the appeal indicates that the charge academic dishonesty, dismissal from an academic program, or both were appropriate.
